Your personal information:

We need to collect information about you in order to open and administer your savings account. The legal basis on which we process your data will be one or more of: the processing is necessary for us to provide you with the financial product you are seeking; it is necessary to comply with our legal obligations; it is in our legitimate business interests in relation to such purposes or with your consent.

- For the purpose of data protection legislation, the Society is the organisation responsible for the processing of the personal information held about you. You have various rights in relation to your personal information, including the right to request a copy of the details held about you by the Society and, where necessary, for inaccurate information about you to be corrected.
- If you make a joint application with your spouse, partner, family member or another party, we will also need to collect personal information about that person. If you make a joint application on behalf of the joint applicant, you agree to show them our Summary Privacy Notice and that you have all necessary consents to enable you to provide us with their information.
- The information we collect is used to verify your identity, administer your accounts, provide you with our services and to communicate with you about other products or services of ours that we think may be of interest to you.
- When using your information we may also share information with anyone you appoint to administer or operate your account; regulatory and government bodies; auditors; any individuals/organisations that we use to provide services to us; and any other person or organisation if the law, public duty or our legitimate interests require us to do so.

- We undertake checks about you with Fraud Prevention Agencies ('FPAs') for the purposes of preventing fraud and money laundering, and to verify your identity. If false or inaccurate information and fraud is suspected then we will record this and share the information with FPAs.
- In making your application you acknowledge that you have received and read the summary of our full Privacy Notice contained in our "Summary Privacy Notice" leaflet. Our full Privacy Notices are available from all our offices and on our website at www.swansea-bs.co.uk/privacy-information

Receipt of correspondence

To enable the Society to reduce its carbon footprint, customers will automatically receive correspondence from the Society by e-mail and their preferred contact method will be noted as e-mail (the Society reserves the right to use another method if required). I understand that I can change my mind at any time and request NOT to receive such information by e-mail only by visiting or telephoning any of the Society's branch offices (contact details available at www.swansea-bs.co.uk) or by e-mailing dpo@swansea-bs.co.uk.

(Where a customer has signed up to online access with the Society, they are unable to change this except in exceptional circumstances and will automatically receive communication from the Society via e-mail.)

Please note that the e-mail address given must be the personal e-mail address of the account holder(s) rather than a family member / work e-mail address.

Where a customer does not have a personal e-mail address or we are unable to contact by e-mail, correspondence will be sent by post.
